

Second Grade Reading Bingo

B	O	O	K	S
Take a selfie of you reading to a stuffed animal or pet. Print it out.	Read a book in the dark with a flashlight. What book did you read? Was it scary?	Find your favorite spot outside and read. Draw a picture of where you were.	Write a new ending to one of your books.	Recommend a favorite book to a friend and write what you liked about it.
Read a picture book. Draw your own illustration of one of the characters.	Make a list of new facts you learned by reading a book about animals.	Draw a scene from one of our summer reading books.	Read a book while traveling in a car. What was your destination?	Read a book over Zoom with one of your friends. What did you read and who did you read it with?
Design a new cover for one of your reading books.	Come up with a new title for one of your reading books.		Write a letter to one of your favorite authors. Ask him three questions.	Read a Dr. Seuss book.  Make up your own list of silly rhyming words.
Read a "Pigeon" book by Mo Willems.  Draw the Pigeon.	Use goggles, glasses, or sunglasses to read a silly book. Draw a picture of you reading the book.	Connect with a character in one of your books. Tell how you are alike.	Make a collage of your favorite books.	Pretend you spend the day with one of your favorite characters. Describe what you did all day.
Make a dictionary of unfamiliar words in one of your books.	Read a book by Stan and Jan Berenstain. What lesson did you learn?	Read a book by Marc Brown. What did you read?	Re-read your favorite summer reading book.	Sit in your empty bathtub and read a book that has something to do about water.

